

Name: Irina Marina

Date of birth: 26.07.1997.

Title : Master engineer of agriculture

Research title: Research trainee

E-mail: irina_m@iep.bg.ac.rs

Education:

Elementary school finished in her hometown (Alibunar). Medical high school finished in Pancevo. In 2016 was enrolled at the Agricultural faculty in Belgrade, course of study Agricultural machinery, which she finished in September 2020 on major subject “preparation and storage of field products“. Master studies were enrolled in year 2020 on Agricultural faculty in Belgrade, course of study – Biotechnical and information engineering, and finished in July 2021 on master thesis „Microclimatic parameters of raspberry production in protected areas“. After that, in the year 2021, PhD studies were enrolled at the Agricultural faculty in Belgrade – major subject Biotechnical engineering.

Professional experience:

From May 2022 was employed by the Institute of agriculture economics as part of an invitation for talented young researchers – students of PhD academic studies for inclusion in scientific research work in accredited scientific research organizations.

Other:

Good computer skills, including MS office tools, good knowledge of English and Romanian language. Possess driving licence B category as well as a drone management licence. Participated in several conferences and seminars of an educational nature. Cooperates with the BioSens Institute in Novi Sad.