

Name and surname: Lana M. Nastić

Date of birth: July, 18th 1975

Title: Ph.D. in Agricultural Economics

Scientific title: Research Associate

E-mail: лана_n@iep.bg.ac.rs; ivlanaa@yahoo.com

Education:

She finished elementary school in Dvor na Uni (Republic of Croatia) and high school in Novi Grad (Bosnia and Hercegovina). Lana Nastić finished B.Sc. studies in agricultural economics in 2002 at the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Belgrade, and received M.Sc. degree in the same field from the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Novi Sad.

She defended her doctoral thesis named “Possibilities for Development of Extensive Types of Livestock Production in Serbia” in 2018 (Faculty of Agriculture, University of Novi Sad).

Professional Experience:

Since 2006 she has been employed at the Institute of Agricultural Economics (IAE) Belgrade, in the sector for scientific research. She was a member of the research teams for many projects financed by Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development as well as Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Water Management of the Republic of Serbia. Besides, she participated as a researcher in number of national and international projects as well as creation of strategic documents for development of local governments.

Scientific and professional activity:

She is an author/co-author of over 90 bibliographic units. Her published papers and doctoral thesis were directed towards evaluation of economic efficiency of investments on micro level as well as organization and economics of agricultural production.

Membership in professional organizations:

She is a member of the Serbian Association of Agricultural Economists and member of the Research Network on Resources Economics and Bioeconomy Association (RebResNet).

Other:

She speaks Russian and English language.