

Name and surname: Ljiljana Rajnović

Date of birth: 05.05.1961.

Title: Doctor of social sciences (PhD)

Scientific title: Research Associate

Mail: rajnoviclj@gmail.com

1. Education:

University Union – Nikola Tesla Beograd: Doctoral dissertation completed.

University of Belgrade: Faculty of Law, Postgraduate studies.

Bar Exam

University of Belgrade, Faculty of Law

Belgrade: Grammar School

2. Work experience:

Starting from April 2003, she has been employed at the Institute for Agricultural Economics, Belgrade (Institute), as a research associate. From September 2001 to December 2002, she was employed in the Privatization Agency as a Head of the Legal Affairs Sector of the Restructuring Center. From May 2001 to September of the same year, she was the Chief of Legal Affairs at the Ministry of Economy and Privatization. From February 1998 to May 2001, she was employed as a Chief of Legal Affairs at the Republic Institute for Development. From January 1994 to December 1998, she worked as an intern and then an associate at the First Municipal Court in Belgrade. From February 1993 to October 1993, she was employed by a law firm as an intern. 2006. Lecturer at the Faculty of Law, University of Belgrade, on a specialist course in shareholding.

She has been engaged in several projects of the Ministry of Science and Technological Development.

3. Scientific and professional activity:

Research of Ljiljana Rajnović is primarily focused on the topics of legal and economic science and profession, with special emphasis on studies in the field of matters related to business law, corporate governance, corporate restructuring and restructuring, acquisitions, securities market, privatization, international agreements, etc. As an author, she has published over 60 bibliographic units. She was involved in the development of numerous projects, which were put into practice. She participated in expert groups on drafting several laws.

4. Other

He speaks English and Russian, knows computer skills. Collaborates with numerous research and educational institutions in the country and abroad. As a lecturer, she participates in seminars and other professional forums and promotions.