

Name: Nada Mijajlovic

Date of birth: 30. 05.1964.

Title: Master of Biological Sciences

Email: nada_m@iep.bg.ac.rs

1. Education:

She graduated from the Faculty of Biology, University of Belgrade in 1990. at the Plant Physiology Group. She defended her master's thesis in 2001. at the Faculty of Biology in the field of plant physiology. She enrolled in doctoral studies at the Faculty of Biology.

2. Professional experience:

After completing her basic studies in 1991, she had a brief working experience as a professor at the First Belgrade High School. She employed as a biologist in 1992. in the laboratory „Eko-lab ”. In this company she worked on several functions, tasks and projects until 2006. She has been employed at the Institute of Agricultural Economics as a Master of Biological Sciences since 2006. Engaged as a member of research teams in the development of multiple projects and strategies.

3. Scientific and professional activity:

Nada is the author of a number of scientific papers in various fields. Within the framework of scientific research at the Institute of Agricultural Economics, she published papers of national and international importance.

4. Membership in professional (professional) associations:

Member of the Balkan Society of Agricultural Economists since 2008;
Member of the Serbian Biological Society, since 2010.

5. Other:

She has years of experience working on a computer. Has a good command of Russian and English. She is a mother of three children.